

O.W.L.S

(Outdoor WEBELOS Leader Skills)
Training

Outdoor WEBELOS leader skills is a training class that helps those Cubmasters, Future WEBELOS Den leader, WEBELOS Den Leaders, and Pack Committee members understand how to use the outdoor part of the WEBELOS program to it fullest. This training is required for all leaders that would like to take the WEBELOS den camping on their own. We will have information on basic camping skills, outdoor cooking and planning campouts. We will also talk about how to teach the Forester, Geologist, Readyman, and Naturalist activity badges.

OWLS start on Saturday, January 23rd at 9:00am runs through Sunday, January 24th. The cost is $25.00 which covers meals, program materials, and a patch. You will need to bring your camping gear and personal items. Please be in Class "A" uniform. Please fill out the information below. For more information or questions call Pam Fryer, Western District Cub Scout Training Chair at (601) 540-7614 or Larry Cagle at (601) 948-6111.
